

Barcelona, 2019

This stool makes a statement from behind; the first impression we have of patrons at a bar or high dining table. Its elongated back looks almost like a shield, providing intimacy and maximum support and comfort. It can be upholstered with a variety of colours, textures and patterns to add personality to any hospitality setting.

Fotografía: %-B- | <1F

